

MORE Mentor Position Description

The Office for RACE relies on motivated and committed students to serve as peer-mentors in the MORE program. These student leaders are collectively responsible for supporting the academic and social transition of incoming first-year students participating in MORE.

The MORE Mentor position is a year-long commitment. Mentors have weekly touchpoints with assigned mentees and are required to attend monthly MORE meetings with their mentees. Peer-mentors are expected to be fully engaged with MORE throughout the academic year and prioritize this student leadership position.

Requirements

- A second-, third-, or fourth-year undergraduate student classification
- Full time enrollment as a student of Emory University
- Prior experience with the MORE program or demonstrated interest in cross-cultural engagement and mentorship
- Availability to engage all components of the MORE program

Time Commitment

The MORE Mentor role requires the following time commitment:

- Attendance at one of the MORE Mentor training sessions on either April 18th or April 21st from 5:30-7:30pm
- Attendance at the MORE fall kick-off event on August 27 from 12-2pm and the MORE spring kick-off event on January 14 from 12-2pm
- Attendance at monthly MORE meetings

Expectations

- Prioritize attendance at all MORE events
- Commit to developing a mentor-mentee relationship with assigned mentee(s)
- Be knowledgeable of campus resources and opportunities relevant to first-year students
- Communicate regularly with program supervisor

Benefits

- Build meaningful relationships with first-year students
- Share important moments of your Emory experience with Mentees
- Become part of a network of student leaders supporting first-year students of color
- Gain leadership and mentoring experience

